

Please leave the Wisconsin No-Call list just as it is. We still get enough garbage calls from "non-profit" organizations asking for money, money and more money. I wish there was some way to get them to stop the constant calls as well as stopping the telemarketers. Banks don't need more time to bother people who choose to be left alone after changing to other financial institutions. Thank you for your time.